AGREEMENT NOT REACHED BETWEEN TOWN AND ACADEMY. Trustees Want All of the $5,500 and Not $5 a Term for Each Pupil-Duf-

cipals' Club Committee. Principal F. J. Werking, chairman of the committee named by the Prin-cipals' club to secure the payment of the tuition of pupils of the town, at the tuition of pupils of the town, at the Academy by the town, stated on Tuesday evening that the town and trustees of the Academy had not been able to come to an agreement in regard to the matter. He stated that the trustees of the Academy had declared that they desired the town to turn over the $5,500 appropriated by the town meeting in payment for the tuition of the town pupils and that they are not willing to accept $5 a term for each pupil believing that the full amount should be turned over to them.

Mr. Werking stated that the intention of the Principals' club and the resolutions regarding the same which had been adopted, and which was also sanctioned by the board of trade, was that the town should pay the tuition of the pupils at the Academy. Not knowing how many pupils there would be the amount was fixed to 500.

knowing how many pupils there would be, the amount was fixed at $5,500, that being considered sufficient to provide for all the pupils of the town attending at the rate of $15 a year for the three terms. It is understood that the sum is larger than the amount required to pay the tuition at the rate of $5 a term, and Mr. Werking stated that it was the desire of the town to pay only the tuition regularly required
